

US History Summer Reading 2019

Read and annotate chapters 5-7 of Out of Many: A History of the American People, our course textbook.

After doing so, complete the following essay prompt:

“Describe the varied social, political, religious, regional, and economic differences between the various groups that lived or settled in colonial north America. Explain how these diverse groups navigated their differences to come together to gain independence for America, but then predict how this diversity will cause tension and conflict in the future.”

Please remember to use MLA format, including correctly citing your information with in-text citations. You are ONLY to use the text as your source, NO outside sources may be used.

-Essays can be emailed to Mrs. Nolan at any time in the summer to:

nnolan@whschool.org

-Around September 1st, Mrs. Nolan will email instructions for submitting the paper to Turn It In, this will be REQUIRED for all papers to receive credit.

-All papers MUST be emailed and submitted to Turn It In PRIOR to the first day of class for on-time credit. Annotations of the PDF will also be checked on the first day of class when we will review the topics covered in these chapters. After review, we will begin the year with chapter 8.
